PART II - MONEY LAUNDERING OFFENCES

3. Money Laundering

- (1) Any person who -

- (a) engages in a transaction that involves property which is, or in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents, the proceeds of any crime; or
- (b) receives, is in possession of, conceals, disguises, transfers, converts, disposes of, removes from or brings into Mauritius any property which is, or in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents, the proceeds of any crime, where he suspects or has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the property is derived or realized, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly from any crime, shall commit an offence.

- (2) A bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of a relevant profession or occupation that fails to take such measures as are reasonably necessary to ensure that neither it nor any service offered by it, is capable of being used by a person to commit or to facilitate the commission of a money laundering offence shall commit an offence.

4. Conspiracy to commit the offence of money laundering

Without prejudice to section 109 of the Criminal Code (Supplementary) Act, any person who agrees with one or more other persons to commit an offence specified in section 3(1) and (2) shall commit an offence.

5. Limitation of payment in cash

- (1) Notwithstanding section 37 of the Bank of Mauritius Act 2004, but subject to subsection (2), any person who makes or accepts any payment in cash in excess of 500,000 rupees or an equivalent amount in foreign currency, or such amount as may be prescribed, shall commit an offence.

Amended by Act 34 of 2004
Amended by Act 15 of 2006

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to an exempt transaction.

6. Procedure

- (1) A person may be convicted of a money laundering offence notwithstanding the absence of a conviction in respect of a crime which generated the proceeds alleged to have been laundered.
- (2) Any person may, upon single information or upon a separate information, be charged with and convicted of both the money laundering offence and of the offence which generated the proceeds alleged to have been laundered.
- (3) In any proceedings against a person for an offence under this Part, it shall be sufficient to aver in the information that the property is, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly the proceeds of a crime, without specifying any particular crime, and the Court, having regard to all the evidence, may reasonably infer that the proceeds were, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, the proceeds of a crime.

7. Jurisdiction

Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Intermediate Court shall have jurisdiction to try any offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder and may, on conviction, impose any penalty including forfeiture.

8. Penalty

- (1) Any person who -
 - (a) commits an offence under this Part; or
 - (b) disposes or otherwise deals with property subject to a forfeiture order under subsection (2), shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 2 million rupees and to penal servitude for a term not exceeding 10 years.

- (2) Any property belonging to or in the possession or under the control of any person who is convicted of an offence under this Part shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to be derived from a crime and the Court may, in addition to any penalty imposed, order that the property be forfeited.
- (3) Sections 150, 151 and Part X of the Criminal Procedure Act and the Probation of Offenders Act shall not apply to a conviction under this Part.

PART III - THE FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT

9. Establishment of the FIU

- (1) There is established for the purposes of this Act a Financial Intelligence Unit which shall have all the powers necessary to administer, and exercise its functions under, this Act.
- (2) The head of the FIU shall be the Director who shall be appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Prime Minister made in consultation with the Leader of the Opposition.
- (3) The Director shall be assisted by such persons as may be appointed by the Director to assist him.

10. Functions of the FIU

(1) The FIU shall be the central agency in Mauritius responsible for receiving, requesting, analysing and disseminating to the investigatory and supervisory authorities disclosures of financial information -

- (a) concerning suspected proceeds of crime and alleged money laundering offences;
- (b) required by or under any enactment in order to counter money laundering; or
- (c) concerning the financing of any activities or transactions related to terrorism,

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the FIU shall -

- (a) collect, process, analyse and interpret all information disclosed to it and obtained by it under the relevant enactments;
- (b) inform, advise and co-operate with the Commissioner appointed under section 45(8) of the Dangerous Drugs Act and the investigatory and supervisory authorities;

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

- (c) issue guidelines to banks, financial institutions, cash dealers and members of the relevant professions or occupations on the manner in which-

- (i) a report under section 14 shall be made; and

- (ii) additional information may be supplied to the FIU, on a suspicious transaction, pursuant to a request made under section 13(2);

Deleted and replaced by Act 34 of 2003

(d) Deleted by Act 34 of 2003

(e) Deleted by Act 34 of 2003

(f) exchange information with overseas financial intelligence units and comparable bodies;

(g) undertake, and assist in, research projects in order to identify the causes of money laundering and terrorist financing and its consequences.

Deleted and replaced by Act 34 of 2003

Amended by Act 15 of 2006

11. Exercise of functions of the FIU

- (1) The functions of the FIU shall be exercised by the Director or such of the persons appointed under section 9(3) as the Director may determine.
- (2) In furtherance of the functions of the FIU, the Director shall consult with and seek such assistance from such persons in Mauritius concerned with combating money laundering, including law officers, the Police and other Government agencies and persons representing banks, financial institutions, cash dealers and members of the relevant professions or occupations, as the FIU considers desirable.

12. The Board

- (1) The FIU shall be administered by a Board which shall consist of -
Amended by Act 34 of 2003
 - (a) a Chairperson, who shall be a person who has -
 - (i) served as a Judge of the Supreme Court; or
 - (ii) served as a Magistrate, or been a law officer or practised as a barrister, in Mauritius for at least 10 years;
 - (b) 2 other members of high repute, of whom one shall be a person with substantial experience in the legal profession and the other shall be a person with substantial experience in the financial services industry.
- (2) The Chairperson and members of the Board shall be appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Prime Minister made in consultation with the Leader of the Opposition.
- (3) The appointment of the Chairperson and each member of the Board shall be on such terms as may be specified in the instrument of appointment of the Chairperson and each such member.
- (4) The Board may act notwithstanding the absence of one of its members.
- (5) Subject to subsection (4), the Board shall determine its own procedure.
Amended by Act 34 of 2003

13. Dissemination of information to investigatory or supervisory authorities

- (1) Where the Director considers that information on any matter should be disseminated to the investigatory or supervisory authorities, he shall refer the information to the Board which shall consider the information and either -

- (a) consent to the Director referring the information to such of the investigatory or supervisory authorities as may be specified by the Board with a view to the determination of any criminal liability and the prosecution of or the action against, the persons accordingly; or
 - (b) refer the information back to the Director with a view to determining whether further supporting information can be found which would justify a subsequent reference to one of the investigatory or supervisory authorities.
- (2) Where a report of a suspicious transaction has been made under section 14, the Director may, for the purposes of assessing whether any information should be disseminated to investigatory or supervisory authorities, request further information in relation to the suspicious transaction from –
- (a) the bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of the relevant profession or occupation who made the report; and
 - (b) any other bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of the relevant profession or occupation who is, or appears to be, involved in the transaction.

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

PART IV - REPORTING AND OTHER MEASURES TO COMBAT MONEY LAUNDERING

14. Reporting obligations of banks, financial institutions, cash dealers and members of relevant professions or occupations

- (1) Every bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of a relevant profession or occupation shall forthwith make a report to the FIU of any transaction which the bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of the relevant profession or occupation has reason to believe may be a suspicious transaction.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as requiring a law practitioner to report any transaction of which he has acquired knowledge in privileged circumstances unless it has been communicated to him with a view to the furtherance of a criminal or fraudulent purpose.

15. Lodging of reports of suspicious transactions

- (1) Every report under section 14 shall be lodged with the FIU.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, every report shall be in such form as the FIU may approve and shall include -

- (a) the identification of the party or parties to the transaction;
- (b) the amount of the transaction, the description of the nature of the transaction and all the circumstances giving rise to the suspicion;
- (c) the business relationship of the suspect to the bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of relevant profession or occupation, as the case may be;
- (d) where the suspect is an insider, any information as to whether the suspect is still affiliated with the bank, financial institution, cash dealer, or member of the relevant profession or occupation, as the case may be;
- (e) any voluntary statement as to the origin, source or destination of the proceeds;
- (f) the impact of the suspicious activity on the financial soundness of the reporting institution or person; and
- (g) the names of all the officers, employees or agents dealing with the transaction.

16. Legal consequences of reporting

- (1) No person directly or indirectly involved in the reporting of a suspicious transaction under this Part shall inform any person involved in the transaction or to an unauthorised third party that the transaction has been reported or that information has been supplied to the FIU pursuant to a request made under section 13(2).
- (2) No proceedings shall lie against any person for having –
 - (a) reported in good faith under this Part, any suspicion he may have had, whether or not the suspicion proves to be well founded following investigation or any prosecution or other judicial action;
 - (b) supplied any information to the FIU pursuant to a request made under section 13(2).
- (3) No officer who receives a report made under this Part shall incur liability for any breach of confidentiality for any disclosure made in compliance with this Act.
- (4) For the purposes of this section –

"officer" includes a director, employee, agent or other legal representative;

“unauthorised third party” does not include any of the supervisory authorities.

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

17. Other measures to combat money laundering

Without prejudice to section 3(2), every bank, financial institution, cash dealer or member of the relevant profession or occupation shall -

- (a) verify, in such manner as may be prescribed, the true identity of all customers and other persons with whom they conduct transactions;
- (b) keep such records, registers and documents as may be required under this Act or by regulations; and
- (c) upon a Court order, make available such records, registers and documents as may be required by the order.

18. Regulatory action in the event of non-compliance

(1) (a) The supervisory authorities may issue such codes and guidelines as they consider appropriate to combat money laundering activities and terrorism financing, to banks or cash dealers subject to their supervision, or to financial institutions, as the case may be.

(b) The Bank of Mauritius shall supervise and enforce compliance by banks and cash dealers with the requirements imposed by this Act, regulations made under this Act and such guidelines as it may issue under paragraph (a).

(c) The Financial Services Commission shall supervise and enforce compliance by financial institutions with the requirements imposed by this Act, regulations made under this Act and such guidelines as it may issue under paragraph (a).

Added by Act 34 of 2003

(2) Where it appears to the Bank of Mauritius that any bank or cash dealer subject to its supervision has failed to comply with any requirement imposed by this Act or any regulations applicable to that bank or cash dealer and that the failure is caused by a negligent act or omission or by a serious defect in the implementation of any such requirement, the Bank of Mauritius, in the absence of any reasonable excuse, may –

- (a) in the case of a bank, proceed against it under sections 11 and 17 of the Banking Act 2004 on the ground that it is carrying business in a manner which is contrary to the interest of the public;

- (b) in the case of a cash dealer or a person licensed to carry on deposit taking business, proceed against him under sections 16 and 17 of the Banking Act 2004 on the ground that he is carrying on business in a manner which is contrary to the interest of the public.

Amended by Act 14 of 2005

- (3) Where it appears or where it is represented to the Financial Services Commission that any financial institution has refrained from complying or negligently failed to comply with any requirement of this Act or regulations, the Financial Services Commission may proceed against the financial institution under section 7 of the Financial Services Development Act 2001 on the ground that it is carrying on its business in a manner which is contrary or detrimental to the interest of the public.
- (4) Where it appears or is represented to any disciplinary body that any member of a relevant profession or occupation over which it exercises control has refrained from complying or negligently failed to comply with any requirement of this Act or regulations, the disciplinary body may take, against the member concerned, any action which it is empowered to take in the case of professional misconduct by that member.

19. Offences relating to obligation to report and keep records and to disclosure of information prejudicial to a request

- (1) Any bank, financial institution, cash dealer or any director or employee thereof or member of a relevant profession or occupation who, knowingly or without reasonable excuse -
- (a) fails to make a report, supply any information requested by the FIU under section 13(2), verify, identify or keep records, registers or documents, as required under section 17;
- (b) destroys or removes any record, register or document which is required under this Act or any regulations;
- (c) warns or informs the owner of any funds of any report required to be made in respect of any transaction, or of any action taken or required to be taken in respect of any transaction, related to such funds; or
- Inserted by Act 34 of 2003*
- (d) facilitates or permits the performance under a false identity of any transaction falling within this Part,

shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

- (2) Any person who -
- (a) falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of any information, document or material which is or is likely to be relevant to a request under the Mutual Assistance in Criminal and Related Matters Act 2003; or
 - (b) knowing or suspecting that an investigation into a money laundering offence has been or is about to be conducted, divulges that fact or other information to another person whereby the making or execution of a request under the Mutual Assistance in Criminal and Related Matters Act 2003 is likely to be prejudiced,

shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Amended by Act 15 of 2006

PART IVA – NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COMBATING THE FINANCING OF TERRORISM

Amended by Act 15 of 2006

19B Functions of the National Committee

The National Committee shall –

- (a) assess the effectiveness of policies and measures to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism;
- (b) make recommendations to the Minister for legislative, regulatory and policy reforms in respect of anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism;
- (c) promote co-ordination among the FIU, investigatory authorities, supervisory authorities and other institutions with a view to improving the effectiveness of existing policies to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism;
- (d) formulate policies to protect the international reputation of Mauritius with regard to anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism;
- (e) generally advise the Minister in relation to such matters relating to anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism, as the Minister may refer to the National Committee.

19C Meetings of the National Committee

The National Committee shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit.

Inserted by Act 34 of 2003

PART V - PROVISION AND EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION IN RELATION TO MONEY LAUNDERING AND FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION

20. Membership of international financial intelligence groups and provision of information to overseas financial intelligence units

- (1) The FIU shall be the only body in Mauritius which may seek recognition by any international group of overseas financial intelligence units which exchange financial intelligence information on the basis of reciprocity and mutual agreement.
- (2) Where it becomes a member of any such international group as is referred to in subsection (1), the FIU may exchange information with other members of the group in accordance with the conditions for such exchanges established by the group.

- (3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), where the FIU becomes aware of any information which may be relevant to the functions of any overseas financial intelligence unit or comparable body, it may offer to pass on that information to the overseas financial intelligence unit or comparable body on terms of confidentiality requiring the consent of the FIU prior to the information being passed on to any other person.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), where a request for information is received from an overseas financial intelligence unit or comparable body, the FIU shall pass on any relevant information in its possession to the overseas financial intelligence unit or comparable body, on terms of confidentiality requiring the consent of the FIU prior to the information being passed on to any other person.
- (5) Where a request is referred to in subsection (4) concerns information which has been provided to the FIU by a supervisory authority, a Ministry or other Government department or statutory body, the information shall not be passed on without the consent of that supervisory authority, Ministry, Government department or statutory body, as the case may be.

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

21. Provision of information to investigatory or supervisory authorities

- (1) Where it becomes aware of any information, which -
 - (a) may be relevant to the functions of any of the supervisory authorities; and
 - (b) does not of itself justify a dissemination to any of the investigatory authorities under section 13, the FIU may, by itself or at the request of the supervisory authorities, subject to subsection (4), pass on the information to the relevant supervisory authority.

- (2) Where it becomes aware of any information which may be relevant to an investigation or prosecution being conducted by one of the investigatory authorities, the FIU shall, subject to subsection (4), pass on the information to that investigatory authority.
- (3) Where it becomes aware of any information which may be relevant to a possible corruption offence, within the meaning of the Prevention of Corruption Act 2002, the FIU shall, subject to subsection (4), pass on the information to the Commission.
- (4) If any information falling within subsections (1), (2) or (3) was provided to the FIU by a body outside Mauritius on terms of confidentiality, the information shall not be passed on as specified in those subsections without the consent of the body by which it was provided.

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

22. Reference of information by the supervisory authorities

- (1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where, at any time in the course of the exercise of its functions, any supervisory authority receives, or otherwise becomes aware of, any information suggesting the possibility of a money laundering offence or suspicious transaction, the supervisory authority, shall forthwith pass on that information to the FIU.

Amended by Act 34 of 2003

- (2) Repealed by Act 34 of 2003

- (3) No liability shall be incurred under any enactment, whether for breach of confidentiality or otherwise, in respect of the disclosure of any information to the FIU pursuant to this section by the supervisory authority or any of its officers or members of its Board.

- (4) For the purposes of this subsection, "officer" includes a director, employee, agent or other legal representative.

PART VI - EXTRADITION IN RELATION TO CASES OF MONEY LAUNDERING

Sections 23 to 28 have been repealed by Act 35 of 2003

29. Money laundering offence to be extraditable

Any money laundering offence shall be deemed to be an extradition crime for which extradition may be granted or obtained under the Extradition Act.

PART VII - MISCELLANEOUS

30. Confidentiality

- (1) The Director, every officer of the FIU, and the Chairperson and members of the Board shall -
- (a) before they begin to perform any duties under this Act, take an oath of confidentiality in the form set out in the Second Schedule; and
 - (b) maintain during and after their relationship with the FIU the confidentiality of any matter relating to the relevant enactments.

- (2) No information from which an individual or body can be identified and which is acquired by the FIU in the course of carrying out its functions shall be disclosed except where the disclosure appears to the FIU to be necessary -
- (a) to enable the FIU to carry out its functions;
 - (b) in the interests of the prevention or detection of crime;
 - (c) in connection with the discharge of any international obligation to which Mauritius is subject; or
 - (d) pursuant to an order of a Judge.
- Amended by Act 34 of 2003*
- (3) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and, on conviction, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

31. Declaration of assets

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director, every officer of the FIU, and the Chairperson and members of the Board shall file with the Commission a declaration of his assets and liabilities in the form specified in the Third Schedule -
- (a) not later than 30 days after his appointment; and
 - (b) on the termination of his appointment.
- Amended by Act 34 of 2003*
- (2) Where, subsequent to a declaration made under subsection (1), the state of assets and liabilities is so altered as to be reduced or increased in value by a minimum of 200,000 rupees, the Director or officer shall make a fresh declaration.
- (2) No declaration of assets filed under subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall be disclosed to any person except with the consent of the Director of officer concerned or, on reasonable grounds being shown, by order of a Judge.

32. Immunity
